
CHIA YEN GAN

+60 17227 8069

chiayen.gan@gmail.com

www.chiayen.com

Profile

Currently based in Singapore as a Donor and Alumni Relations Executive, she also practices as a contemporary artist. Her diverse skill sets include project management, fundraising and community building.

Work Experience

Donor and Alumni Relations Executive, LASALLE College of the Arts Singapore — March 2017 - Present

Enhance and develop the relationship with alumni and with donors of the institution through various donor recognition and stewardship events, special donor communications/reports and relationship building projects.

Technical Project Manager, REVAsia

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia — Sept 2016 - March 2017

Partnered closely with the Engineering team to define and shepherd features through their full lifecycle. Acted as the facilitator that fosters new ideas, develops and tracks project timelines, and communicates across teams to ensure successful execution.

Special Projects

Co-Founder, Krate - space for creatives - current

Co-founded a community hub in Melaka for creatives, building a community of artists and art lovers.

Co-Organiser, Startup Weekend Melaka - 2016

Co-organised Startup Weekend Melaka; an initiative supported by TechStars Asia and the Malaysian Global Innovation & Creativity Centre (MAGIC).

Founder, Hump Day Gallery - 2015

Founder of student run gallery, Hump Day Gallery in Pennsylvania State University University Park's Visual Arts Building. Curated and organised three student and faculty exhibitions.

Education

Pennsylvania State University, Bachelor of Science in Economics

Concentration: International, Development & Transition Economics

Pennsylvania State University, Bachelor of Arts in Visual Arts

Concentration: Sculpture

Language Skills

Fluency in reading and writing of English, Mandarin Chinese and Malay language.

References

Sam Wee | General Manager at RevAsia Malaysia
sam@revasia.com
